Dr. Klaus Kostka

Since 25 years, Klaus Kostka is specialized on maritime and marine insurance law as well as aviation, road transport and logistics law. He regularly represents German and foreign ship owners, ship managers and marine insurers in contentious and non-contentious matters as well as in the handling of casualties. Apart from that, developers and manufacturers of ship's equipment, ship and insurance brokers as well as international freight forwarders form his client base.

Recent work:

- Representing the Federal Republic of Germany, several insurers and re-insurers in connection with the midair collision of two airplanes over Überlingen in 2002 and the resulting lengthy legal disputes.
- Representing a German ship-owner in the cancellation of shipbuilding contracts with a Chinese shipyard and the ensuing enforcement of claims against the shipyard and refund guarantors (total volume: exceeding 100 mio. US $).
- Advising and representing clients in relation to various major marine and commercial insurance matters, including cover disputes.
- Drafting and negotiating the Charter Party for an accommodation vessel for refugees on behalf of the Free and Hanseatic City of Hamburg.
- Drafting and negotiating project and consortia agreements for a manufacturer of central component parts for innovative LNG-propulsion systems for ships.

Appraisals:

- *"Klaus Kostka is a widely reputed litigator, recognised for his abilities in negotiating the release of vessels under arrest, as well as contentious insurance matters in the shipping sector.
