

Tobias Nesemann
Rechtsanwalt

FLEET HAMBURG
Willy-Brandt-Straße 57
20457 Hamburg

Tel. +49 (40) 5 700 700
Fax +49 (40) 5 700 70 200
t.nesemann@fleet-hamburg.com

Tobias Nesemann

Tobias Nesemann generally advises clients on trade and commercial law matters and in relation to the resolution of maritime disputes. His special focus is on maritime labour law and collective bargaining agreements. Tobias is also often asked by clients to advise in relation to sanction and embargo regimes.

Recent work:

- Defending ship-manager clients in relation to multimillion dollar claims made by several ship-owners in various court and arbitration proceedings; and representing ship managers their claims against ship-owners for unlawful cancellation of the management contract and sale of the managed fleet.
- Representing a Turkish pipeline producer in enforcing claims for damages against a South Korean supplier.
- Advising a major cruise company in connection with inter alia defeating personal injury claims raised in the US as well as conducting negotiations for the conclusion of a collective bargaining agreement.
- Contractual and legal advice for a major ship supplier based in the Netherlands in order to enforce their rights vis-à-vis ship-yards.

Memberships:

- German Maritime Arbitration Association (GMAA)
- Deutscher Verein für internationales Seerecht (DVIS)

Employment Record:

Since 2020: Partner at FLEET HAMBURG

2012-2019: Lawyer at Fleet Hamburg LLP

1998 - 2011: Research and academic assistant at the Tax Technical Department of PricewaterhouseCoopers AG, Hamburg and the law office of RAe Peters Borowiak Magnus which focusses on construction law

2004 – 2012: Law student at the Hamburg Courts and legal clerkship at the Regional Court of Osnabrück

1998 – 2005: Police Officer in Mecklenburg-Vorpommern and Hamburg

Languages:

German, English

Leisure activities:

- Tobias enjoys swimming with his two daughters. He occasionally practices boxing and plays chess. A part of his leisure time he is trying to tackle down the snails in his vegetable garden.